President's Report Grand Final 2012.

Grand Final

Grand Final week is always a big week at our club. What a fantastic and memorable experience this was to be for our mighty Under 10s and their families.

Training during the week was good and you could feel all the excitement on and off the track, there was certainly much fun being had in making the team's banner.

Sunday morning saw the Huge Preston Bullants Army travel on mass east just a short drive to sunny & windy Burwood Reserve, Ashburton.

It was very pleasing to see so many Preston Bullants families both current & old come to support our Under 10s. Some of our old favourites seen in the crowd were Peter DiRago, Neil & Lesley Langley, Ian Ewing and past PBJFC players Mark Cigagna & Joshua Rentos. Huge Thanks also to all our 2012 Coaches for attending, namely; David Sutton (U14s), Dean Bennett (U13s), Dean Kamolins (U11s), Dean Delle-Vergini (Colts), John Katsikas (U12s), Whitlam Malkoun (Tackers).

The game itself was played at such good standard and in good spirits. We had most of the play in the first quarter but were not able to post a handy lead. The next 2 quarters were very close, which saw some good tackles and good kicking under pressure by both teams. In the last quarter, our fantastic kids tired and were just outplayed by a better Doncaster Heights team.

Hold your heads up high kids, be proud of your efforts through the season and on grand final day, the club is certainly proud of you. Whilst there were tears both from the kids and some officials (nothing wrong with that!), it was pleasing to see all concerned quickly realise it's only a game and that it was time to celebrate a great season.

Need A Further Local Footy Fix?

The following two clubs are playing their footy finals this week, so if you have time please go and support them.

Northcote Park Football Club

Playing against arch rivals West Preston FC this coming Sunday at Preston City Oval at 2pm. Promises to be great contest and a big fathers day crowd is sure to attend. Match Report

A Gallant Effort

It is said that we live vicariously through the endeavours and achievements of our children. If this is so, then parents of Under 10s Bullants have been taken on one hell of a ride by a group of very talented and dedicated kids. The season started for the Bullants one division below Green and cumulated in a Grand Final appearance. As I stated to my child on a number of occasions leading up to the big game, some people play their whole careers and never get to a Grand Final. Treasure and respect it in equal measure.

The Bullants put up a gallant effort but, alas, it wasn't enough. We could say that the ball did not bounce right for us but in the end the key factor was that Doncaster was better on the day, that's okay. Congratulations to them. However, the Bullants played great, skilful and tough footy.

The instruction from David and Tim (thank you for helping grow such a fantastic group by the way) before the game was to have numbers around the ball, trap it in and help your team mates. At the end of the first quarter the scoreboard suggested the team followed instructions to the letter. This was one hard fought match and one solitary point was scored. Bullants had the lead.

Our backline, lead by Darcy was terrific. The tackling was tight and fierce. Julian was creating runs through the middle (being tagged by not one but two Dockers) and Leo, in his welcome back game asserted himself and set up a couple of chances early.

During the second Doncaster started to take control of the ball. With strong marking and good ball skills they broke through and scored twice. Bullants did not back down. Maivia scored one of the goals of the year, taking a handpass in the centre and running forward he then booted it with enough weeties to take it over heads and into the square where it bounced (almost in slow motion) as the Bullants and supporters willed it through.

Blustery conditions, blowing across the ground, made it hard for both teams (and rugged up supporters). In the third the weather turned a little colder. The Bullants put their shoulder to the wheel and fought harder. They won the quarter. More players lifted. And the backline, again was tremendous. Max, making full back decision that would impress Scarlett, saved a couple of goals. Fletch took on 3 players, won the ball and kicked forward. And players like Dylan, Daniel H and Jesse started to get more of the ball. One piece of play stood out for me, highlighting the depth of the team across the ground. Fletch marked in defence. He kicked to Dylan who marked strongly. Dylan kicked to Leo, who marked it and kicked to Daniel who took a beauty and goaled. In that moment, we saw how good Bullants Under 10s are and can be.

In the fourth quarter Doncaster broke the game open and won. At the final siren, both Bullants and Doncaster had won two quarters each, which was fitting. David's speech to the team following the game was touching and profound. Feel the hurt but don't get lost in it. Learn from the loss. The Bullants Under 10s are a great team who achieved beyond expectations in 2012 and can now build into a formidable group next year. Go Bullants!

Big thanks to the parent helpers through out the year and on grand final day:
